

Read the handout about Questioning and reflect on your own questioning strategies.

1. For 2 days, keep an informal journal of the kinds of questioning you employ. What is most successful in your class? Why?
2. On next two school days, make a conscious effort to replace any ineffective questioning strategies with effective strategies. What were the results?